INTRODUCTION

"HISTORICAL ARCHIVES OF THE CENTRO NACIONAL CHEGA!.P

Decree-Law No. 48/2016 describes the Centro Nacional Chega! (hereafter the Centro Chega!) as a public institution whose responsibility is to preserve the memory of the human rights violations inflicted in Timor-Leste in the period between 1974 and 1999.

The Archive of the Centro Chega! is a vast resource of unparalleled historical significance to the people of Timor-Leste and to the victims and survivors of the human rights violations committed in the years 1974-1999.

The archive is composed of a wide variety of historical documents collected and compiled by three funds: a) CAVR); b) CVA; c) and the Centro Chega!.

The archive preserves over 50,000 historical documents, of which 28,301 have already been digitalized and catalogued.

In the wake of the 16th anniversary of the publishing of the Chega! report of 2005, the Centro Chega! strives to further develop its archives. Announced in 2021, these efforts involve advancing policies and procedures to ensure the future preservation of historical documents and measures to promote public access to the archives.
