

EAST TIMOR'S FUTURE AFTER THE NOBEL PRIZE

Talk by JOSÉ RAMOS HORTA
1996 NOBEL PEACE PRIZE WINNER

Introduced by Svend Robinson MP

& Premiere screening of Elaine Brière's film

BITTER PARADISE: THE SELL-OUT OF EAST TIMOR

Nominated for Best Political Documentary, Hot Docs 1997 & The 1997 Chalmers Award

Saturday, March 8 • 8 p.m.

Robson Square Conference Centre, Room 3225

(800 Robson St., under the Art Gallery) • Tickets $10

event info: East Timor Alert Network 688-4191 • film info: 325-8350

advance tickets: People's Co-op Bookstore, 1391 Commercial Drive, tel: 253-6442

PHOTOS: ELAINE BRIÈRE • DESIGN: MARK ACHBAR

ontario public interest research group and east timor alert network present

BITTER PARADISE THE SELL-OUT OF EAST TIMOR

a film by Elaine Briere

MEET TIMORESE
ACTIVISTS
ISABEL GALHOS
&
ABE BARRITO SOARES!

MEET ELAINE BRIERE!

East Timor, 1974 - photography by Elaine Briere, as featured in her video Bitter Paradise.

This film documents the dark side of Canadian foreign policy.
It traces the political journey of photographer Elaine Briere from the villages of East Timor to the halls of the United Nations in an effort to find out Ottawa's rationale for sacrificing the tiny nation of East Timor to corporate interests in Indonesia.

THURS. MARCH 13 7PM FREE!!

(2135)
Sid Smith Building, second floor 2135
100 St George St (south of Harbord)

For more information, please call 978-7770. or 531-5850